VEISHEA SERVICE DAY & STASH THE TRASH REGISTRATION OPEN

AMES, Iowa — Stash the Trash, VEISHEA, and Keep Iowa State Beautiful are collaborating in an effort to make connections with the community by cleaning up trash throughout Ames. VEISHEA Service Day/Stash the Trash will be held on Saturday, March 28, 2009 and registration is open for shifts between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

While the majority of groups will be picking up trash on campus and in the community, student leaders have organized several special projects including activities with the Department of Natural Resources and Friendship Ark Homes. Volunteers will meet at Reiman Gardens to check in and pick up bags and gloves. Admission to Reiman Gardens will be free to volunteers.

This is the second year of collaboration between the sponsoring organizations. Jennifer Garrett, Coordinator of Leadership and Service in the Memorial Union and chair of the Stash the Trash Committee, discussed the event. “For the last several years, VEISHEA and Stash the Trash have collaborated to get students and community members connected and in the community doing good work. It is inspiring to see families with children, college students, ISU staff and faculty members, and other residents working together to make Ames a more beautiful place.”

Register online as an individual, or get some friends together and register as a group. For more information visit www.veishea.iastate.edu or contact Jennifer Garrett at 515.294.4354 or garrett1@iastate.edu.
